

Dr L. C. Jesty – Time Line

- 14-August-1907 Leslie Born
- 01-July-1929 Leslie Graduates as a Physicist from Southampton University and starts work on TV tubes at GEC Research Labs Wembley
- 1933 Leslie worked, at GEC as a research scientist on Cathode Ray Tubes.
At some time, probably late 1930s Leslie had associations with and may have worked with John Logie Baird
- 27-September-1935 Leslie elected as an Associate Member of the Television Society (subsequently The Royal Television Soc.)
- 16-January-1936 Leslie elected as an Associate Member IEE
- 1940 to 1945 Leslie worked with GEC developing CRTs for Radar as part of the WW2 Scientific Effort
- 1944 Leslie made a Fellow of the Royal Television Society
- 1946 Leslie leaves GEC Research Labs and joins Cinema-Television in Lower Sydenham
- 1949 Cinema-Television closes and most of the staff joined the Marconi Research Labs with Leslie as Head of TV Research under L.H. Bedford
- 1956 Jules Thorn enters into a partnership with Sylvania Labs to form Sylvania-Thorn and Leslie appointed Director Colour TV Research
- 1962 to 1968 Leslie moves to USA to work at Westinghouse Colour TV Labs in Pittsburgh
- 1969 Leslie returns to UK and takes up a Research Fellowship with Chelsea College, London University, and acts as a consultant to the TV Industry until his retirement
- 01-August-1988 Leslie dies

*Please note working dates are best estimates

This document was kindly provided by Richard Jesty