

THE ADOLPH EICHMANN TRIAL, JERUSALEM - 1961

A world first - the televising of a live courtroom trial

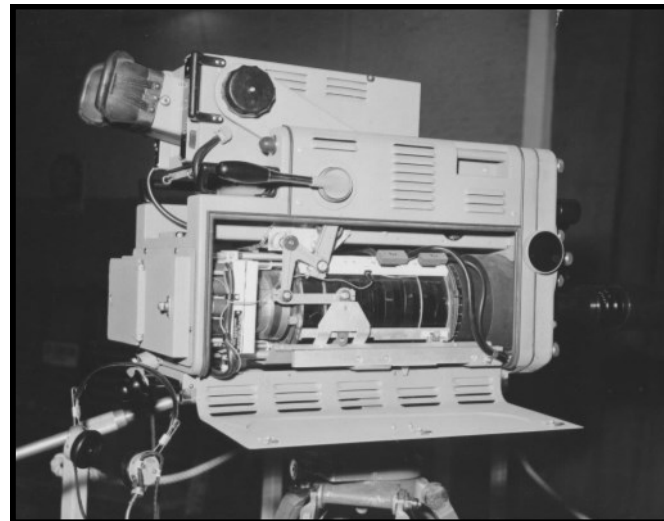

Trial control room

The pictures were taken by a MkIII OB unit, video-taped by Ampex and then flown out for transmitting around the world - there were no satellites then!

Video Tape Recorder room

The internals of the MkIII camera

Terry Barritt on the MkIII camera

Photos courtesy Terry Barritt

THE ADOLPH EICHMANN TRIAL, JERUSALEM - 1961

The production in action with Leo Hurwitz, Milton Fruchman and Alan Rosenthal
Marconi people are Ron Staples, Mike Pickles, Ron Huntsman, Peter Willis and Keen Wong.

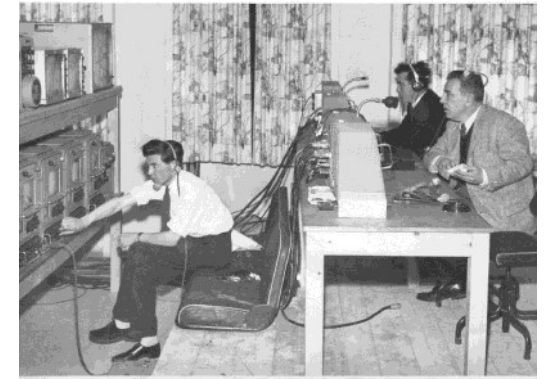

View of the trial building showing our camera cables across the street
Terry Barritt and Ron Huntsman unloading equipment from the OB van

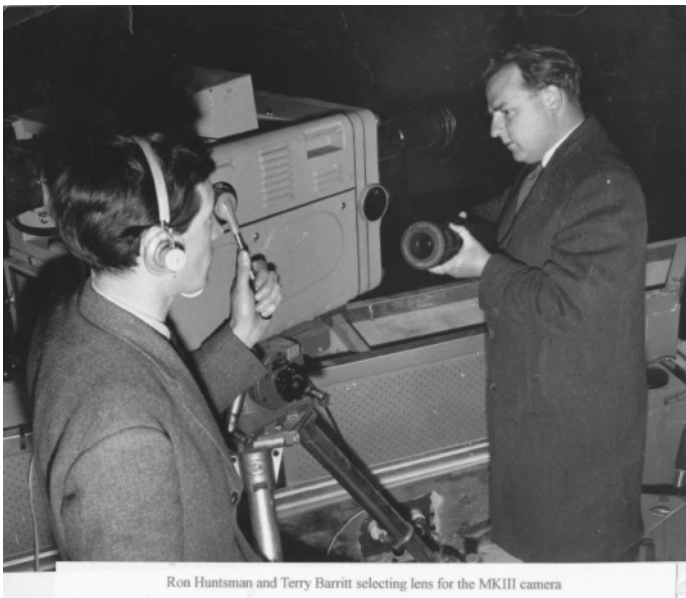

THE ADOLPH EICHMANN TRIAL, JERUSALEM - 1961

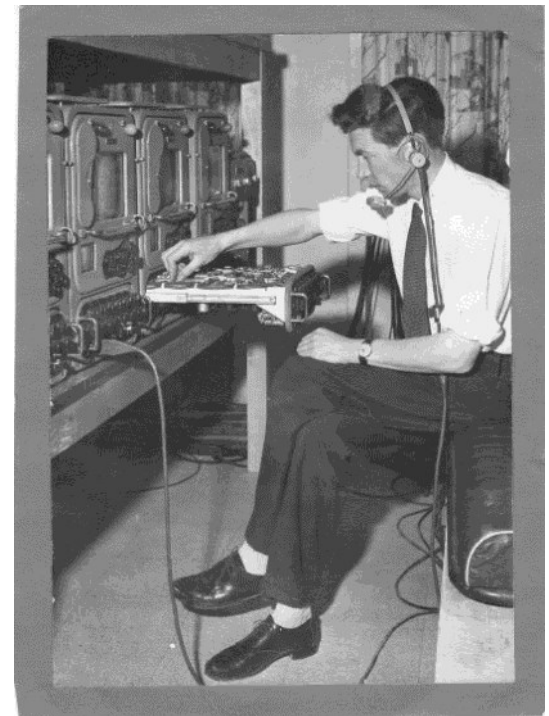

Roy Sharp and Ron Huntsman installing the production system

Roy Sharp, Ron Huntsman and the director, Leo Hurwitz having a first look at the courtroom pictures

Ron Huntsman and Terry Barritt selecting lens for the MKIII camera

Ron Huntsman setting up a MKIII camera in the production area